

Nikki Walser joins Yavapai Title Agency as escrow assistant

Special to the Courier

Yavapai Title Agency's Prescott Lakes branch, 3216 Lakeside Village Drive, has announced Nikki Walser has joined the team as an escrow assistant. In her role, she will provide support to the escrow team and clients, as well as order and review various requests and prepare closing packages for buyers, sellers and real estate agents.

With 25 years of experience in the mortgage industry, specifically in the lending and real estate side, Walser brings a wealth of knowledge to the Prescott Lakes branch.

Walser is a Prescott resident, where she happily lives with her family.

Since 1963, Yavapai Title Agency has been Yavapai County's hometown title agency and real estate resource. Each of its eight busy offices across Yavapai County in Camp Verde, Chino Valley, Cottonwood, Prescott, Prescott Valley and Sedona are wholly focused on the company's overarching mission to be "where excellence is tradition" and are preferred agents for Old Republic National Title Company, Title Resource Guarantee and First American Title Insurance Company.

Active in the civic and business community, Yavapai Title Agency employees are proud members of local chambers of commerce, Arizona Land Title Association, Women's Council of Realtors and many more.

Similarly dedicated to giving back, through its Yavapai Title Home is Where the Heart is community outreach program, the organization empowers all of its team members in offices across the county to roll up their sleeves, join together and effect positive change in its own backyard.

For more information, please visit www.YavapaiTitle.com.

