

MORE WAYS TO WIN!

CVRnews.com

Trusted local news leader for Chino Valley, Arizona

Home | Classifieds | Place an ad | Obituaries | Public Notices | Galleries | Opinions | Real Estate Search | Subscribe | 928 Media Lab | Yellow Pages | Contact Us
Find It Blogs Features Milestones Submit Extras Circulars Today's Ads

home : features : features

Share

May 29, 2015

Like Share 0 Tweet 0 +1 Recommend this on Google

5/27/2015 6:00:00 AM

Celebrating 25 years

Yavapai Title hits milestones; parties in Chino Valley

Salina Sialega
Chino Valley Review

Looking back over 25 years in business in Chino Valley, Rhonda Uswa of Yavapai Title said one thing that has changed over the years is that the title contracts have gone from being only one page to nine pages with 15 addendums.

What Uswa has gained most in living and working in Chino Valley is friends, she said on Wednesday, May 20, during a 25th anniversary celebration fiesta and Chino Valley Chamber of Commerce mixer that Yavapai Title hosted in its parking lot.

"I've raised two kids in Chino, and everybody knows everybody. Everyone becomes your friends either through your kids or your business," Uswa said.

She looked over the crowd of folks enjoying Mexican food and drinks and a live music by the band, Rewind, and added, "Hence the great turnout."

The business opened in 1981 as Capital Title in 1981, and became Yavapai Title 25 years ago.

Uswa said she and the business have seen a lot of growth in Chino Valley, and being on Highway 89, she said it's like "having front-row seats."

Chamber members as well as other community members and Yavapai Title employees and customers enjoyed the outdoor event.

Review/Salina Sialega

Rhonda Uswa of Yavapai Title, right, enjoys her guests at the company's 25th anniversary fiesta and chamber mixer on Wednesday, May 20.

Review/Salina Sialega

Yavapai Title employees, from left, Margee Gombich and Jamie Granillo dance while serving drinks for guests on Wednesday, May 2, at the company's 25th anniversary chamber mixer. Not pictured is employee Evelyn Hinote.

Search Search
Advanced Search

We want to hear from you
>>> Send us a news tip, letter or question

Chino Valley, AZ 86323

Weather
84°F

Mostly Sunny

SSE Wind 11.4 mph

LOCAL NEWS ANYTIME ANYWHERE

Click to download FREE iPhone or Android app